Subject Anonymous letter dated October 31, 1935, addressed to Shanghai Municipal Police re: a communist suspect named Wang Mu Ya (王慕雅).

Made by D.I. Kuh Pao-hwa. Forwarded by J.B. Cao D.I.

With reference to the attached anonymous letter dated October 31, 1935 reporting that Wang Mu Ya (王慕雅), a teacher in the employ of the Shanghai Municipal Council Poletechnic Public School for Chinese, Pakhoi Road, is suspected of being a communist, the following is the result of enquiries made by C.D.S.155 attached to Section 2.

Wang Mu Ya, the subject of the enquiry, has been in the employ of the S.M.C. Poletechnic Public School for Chinese as a teacher for the past six years. He resides with his wife and family at No.6 Yu Yuen Terrace, Yu Yuen Road, where he has been living for about twelve months. His description is as follows:-

Age about 35, height 5'7", medium build, broad face, fair complexion, long hair brushed back, wears white rimmed spectacles. He was last seen dressed in a dark brown foreign style suit and black leather shoes. Speaks the Soochow dialect.

Discreet enquiries made in the vicinity of Wang's residence as well as at the place of his employment, together with an unobstrusive watch kept on his movements generally, have failed to show that he is connected with the activities of the Chinese Communist Party. Furthermore, there is nothing on record concerning him.

In view of the foregoing it would appear that spite is the motive of the informant.

The postal cancellation chop on the envelope shows that the letter was posted at the Rue Kraetzer Sub Post Office, No.105 Rue Marco Polo, at 10 a.m. October 31, 1935.

To

Police Department,

Shanghai Municipal Council.

Gentlemen,

It has recently been discovered that the movements of Wang Mu Ya, a teacher employed at the S.M.C. School, Pakhoi Road (Polytechnic Public School for Chinese?), are so suspicious that he is probably a Communist. You are requested to make inquiries. I bitterly hate Communism as my brother was murdered by Communists. To avenge the wrong, I submit the above information.
